A member of the Senior Class did lately pass

And of his trip to Heaven I will tell without delay.

The Keeper was there waiting behind the Pearly Gate.

When our beloved classmate pulled up his Ford V-8.

"Greetings," said the keeper, "I've been expecting you.

I knew that jalopy would finally pull you through.

But before you enter, there is just one thing more.

Could you tell me a little something of the Class of '54?"

"Why sure," he said, "because you see I definitely fear

For toiling on our hist'ry is the reason why I'm here."

Yvonne and Ruth and Alice were something great to see.

In basketball our girls did fine and brought the team to fame.

With Judy as their manager, they fought in every game. The boys' team, too, were hailed as champs; they sure could raise that score.

Everyone went wild with cheers as they burned up the floor.

Maureen, Glady, Gail, and Phyl were there to lead the cheers.

The mem'ry of their talents will last throughout the years.

In baseball, softball, tennis, too, the Seniors showed their stuff.

They overflowed with sportsmanship and fought when things were rough.

Our voices in the Glee Club were the very best

You should have heard "Dry Bones" and "I'll Vever Walk Alone."

In the band and orchestra our members were the Wonderful, tremendous is what you have to rate us.

The Pro Merito Society was called "cream of the crop.

And the Student Council members helped our school rise to the top.

JUNIOR CLASS

Jane Muller, '55

When we started our Junior Year in the fall of 1953, we were an eager group of upperclassmen ready to participate in sports, band, orchestra. and other school activities. We welcomed five new members to our class: Donald Anderson from Abington, Mass.; Harry Driscoll from Tokyo. Japan: David Himelrick, from Boston. Mass.; June Sabin, from Great Neck. New York: and Pat Snyder, from Chatham, New Jersey.

At our first meeting we chose Peter Stewart as our president: Edward Newcomb as vice president: Carol Merritt. secretary: and Robert Stewart, treasurer. As our class advisers we chose Miss Gilc and Mr. Atkinson. We were well represented in the Student Council this year by Carolyn Bamber, Letitia Bernard. Donald Cohen. William Colton, and Ronald Kirwood.

During the year members of our class participated in all sports, the All-School Play, the Spring Concert, and other school activities. Marcia Newcomb and Lilla Fleming, the peppy cheerleaders from our class, were always at the games cheering the teams. Janie Radcliffe and Gail McCarthy were drum majorettes. and Elizabeth Glavin, head majorette.

The two most important events of the year were the ordering of class rings and the Junior Prom.

We are looking forward to our senior year with great anticipation, and hope that it will be as enjoyable and as successful as our junior year.

On October 29, 1953 the Sophomores held the first class meeting of the year. We elected Dean Shea as president, James Breen as vice president, Caroline Grassie as secretary. and Joan Turner as treasurer. Mr. Benson and Mrs. Bauer are our class advisers.

Three new members joined our class this year. Shirley Bevan came from Jeremiah E. Burke High School for Girls in Dorchester; Cynthia Carlsen, from North Quincy High; and Elaine Shea, from Boston.

Our representatives to the Student Council are Roger Kirwood. Donald Oakes, and Charles Rencurrel. Four sophomores were elected to the Key Club: Roger Kirwood, Donald Oakes, Charles Rencurrel, and Charles Rodgers.

Our class was well represented this year in all school activities. Sophomores were seen on the football, field hockey, and basketball teams. Several of our class members also appeared in the All-School production, and in the band, orchestra, and glee clubs.

Next year we shall be upperclassmen, still working toward the final goals of graduation and further education.

FRESHMAN CLASS

Judy Garlinger, '57

Most of the Freshmen can honestly say that this has been a happy and successful year. Early in the fall many joined the various activities that were open to us. Several members of our class were on the sports teams, in the band, orchestra, or glee club, and in the All-School production. We greeted several new members, all of whom enjoy the school very much.

In November we held our first class meeting and elected the following officers: David Buckley, president: Eddie Dunham, vice president; Carol Green, secretary: and Larry Schiner, treasurer.

Our main project for the year was the Freshmen-Sophomore Dance held in April. All that went agreed that it was a grand success.

The year has certainly passed speedily for us. We all wish the best of luck to the members of the Senior Class who have done so much for the school, and we sincerely hope that we can equal their loyalty by the time we are Seniors.

JUNIOR HIGH NEWS

Charlotte White, Grade Eight

This year the class of '58 welcomed many new members. They were Donna Prouty, Glenn Tedford, Brenda Erickson, Harold Whitehouse, Betty Winston, Jeffrey Tubman, Gerald MacDonald, William Kay, Fred Fischer, and Joan Gronblad. We all miss Janice Finlay, who recently moved to Hingham.

Miss Cuneen's home room put on an excellent assembly celebrating Armistice Day and American Education Week. Those included in the program were Philip Edwards, Richard Barke, Richard Basler, John Appleton, Nancy Damon, Emilie Bubin, Patricia Ford, and Jessie Cole.

Miss Murphy's home room assembly was a mystery play, "The Old Sleuth." Those in the cast were John Jacubens, William Kay, Russell Logan, Paul Johnson, James McInnis, Brenda Erickson, Nancy Oliver, Anne Mulligan, Ann Hare, and Marcia LeMier.

We all missed Miss Cuneen during her absence in the spring. Mrs. Pinel substituted during Miss Cuneen's illness. Anne Misner, Grade Seven

The new pupils of the seventh grade this year were Maura Corbett. Judy Gallagher, Waine MacAllister, Sonja Fischer, Susan Obert, and David Smith.

The first assembly this year was a Columbus Day assembly given by Mrs. Williams' class. It consisted of a proclamation, stories, and songs. Miss Giles' class gave a New Year's assembly. A play about the months of the year was given. Mr. Driscoll's class gave an assembly that consisted of the folk dances of foreign countries.

The magazine drive this year was a big success. Some of the prizes awarded were a radio, a pen and pencil set, a camera, and a watch.

We are pleased to have Jean Gunn and Geraldine Donahue as members of the orchestra.

Everyone was sorry that Johanna Barrie was in the hospital for over a week with an injured lung.

GREATER LOYALTY FOR A LARGER SCHOOL

Deborah Tilden, Grade 8

We will soon be in the new addition to our school. The gym, the library, and the laboratories will be larger and better equipped. The time has come to equip ourselves with better school spirit.

School spirit is defined as enthusiastic loyalty for your school. There are many ways in which you can show school spirit. It is not enough to go to school games and cheer. This is only a small part of school spirit. Friendliness. good conduct, appearance, attitude, co-operation, and politeness are all qualities of a person with good school spirit.

Friendliness is a much-needed quailty for good school spirit. We must be friendly with our classmates and teachers. A good way for students of a school to show school spirit is to be friendly and helpful to new pupils. Good conduct and politeness help your school's reputation. Students are proud to go to a school where politeness and good conduct are in evidence.

Yeur attitude is a large factor in school spirit. Doing your homework, studying for tests, and passing assignments in on time all show what attitude you take toward school. Good attitude includes keeping your grades up and trying your hardest in class at all times. If all the students have the proper attitude, school spirit will rise steadily.

Let's expand our school spirit to fit our larger school.

SENIORS LOOK AHEAD

Ruth Mitchell, '54

High school days are now ending for the members of the Class of 1954. For the young people now graduating, these years in high school have been years of preparation, years in which they have been guided in making important decisions. Courses and activities in school have prepared today's graduates for the responsibilities of the life ahead. Looking back, the Seniors find that these have been happy years, during which they have made lasting friends and built treasured memories. However, the members of the class are now ready to look forward, not back, except to recall a basketball game, a dance, a party, or other happy memory.

The years to come take on new importance. Some of the boys see in the immediate future two years in Uncle Sam's service before they can start work in the field they have chosen. Others in the Class of 1954 will enter college, where they will prepare for various careers.

Some will go directly to work.

Colleges and secretarial schools will be the next step for many of the girls who are now seniors. Some will start working, while others may get married in the near future. A few of the girls may join the armed services along with the boys. Whatever the individual plan, every member of the class will look ahead with high expectations.

After graduation, the decisions of the students now leaving Scituate High School will have to be their own. These young people are entering the world of adulthood. The day the doors of S.H.S. close behind them for the last time, they will start forward on the road of their new life.

Yes, the Seniors are looking ahead.

SUCCESS FOR TOMORROW

Letitia Bernard, 55

Today as our seniors are preparing for graduation and college, we wonder what their futures will be. Will they become good leaders and intelligent adults? These are questions that only time can answer.

Just what is necessary to be successful in the world today? Is it power, money, or strength? Contrary to many people's beliefs these factors sometimes really hinder rather than promote success. If a person is to be a true success, he need only possess three qualities: a good character, the ability to work, and respect and love for his fellow men.

These are not qualities which you just happen to possess. They must be acquired through hard work, understanding, and sacrifice. They are not built in a day, a week or a month. They are obtained only after years of unceasing effort towards the goal of success.

Perhaps we have made mistakes in the past. This is no reason for failure, for there is no better time than now to start working towards success. Start now, for through hard work today, success can be secured for tomorrow!

A CHANGING WORLD

Betty Foster, '54

For many years graduating classes of our high school have written and spoken, in different words, but with the same thought, of the great difference between life in the familiar halls of our high school and our venture into the "cruel world.

It always was a great change from the sheltered life of high school years to go to a different town or city to work or to further one's education. But as drastic as the change was, the world was the same - comparatively secure and holding the probability of the completion of college cducation, or other plans. But the graduate of 1954 looks forward to . . . what? A world that changes overnight — maybe in a few hours. by new developments of science, by communist infiltration, or by bloodshed. The boys graduating this year don't know whether or not they will be able to get a job or finish their education before they go to work for Uncle Sam. The girls are affected by these uncertain patterns of life, too.

Life has moved at a fast pace during our lifetime, much faster than it did for our parents and grandparents. It seems not too long ago that our grandparents talked of the horse and buggy era when they were children. In the space of a few years we're in the jet-propelled age. We are heading at a terrific pace . . . to what? We the graduating class of 1954 must fathom this fast pace, and keep up with it, and grasp it, too. In a few more years we will be electing our representatives and running the government and we must know what it's all about. We must watch this changing world, learn by its mistakes. and keep our country safe for our children.

SHOULD THE VOTING AGE BE LOWERED TO EIGHTEEN

Robert Loring, '54

Should the voting age be lowered to eighteen years? That is one of the most controversial questions of the day. Many people think it should and many think otherwise. It is my conviction that the age should be lowered.

Young people of today are being called on to serve their country and sometimes to sacrifice their lives for our kind of life and government. Does it seem unreasonable that young men who proudly wear the uniforms of the United States armed forces should ask to have a say in the government that they may have to die to preserve?

Taxpayers all over the nation are paying hardearned money to educate the youth. Some of this money is going into courses covering civics, good government, and problems of democracy. In our own State of Massachusetts, a one-year course in United States history and civics must be passed before a pupil can graduate from high school. By these courses and the further education of radio, television, newspapers, and by the fact that after receiving a diploma from high school most boys will be subject to the draft, an active interest in government is aroused in our modern teen-agers. This interest will be stimulated if we can vote at eighteen. but if we must wait three or four years, we are bound to lose some interest in the running of our government.

Perhaps if the vote were given to the eighteenyear-olds when they were so vitally concerned with the problems of their country, their attitude toward political affairs in the later life might be more active. There are many arguments against lowering the voting age. but the advantages far outweigh the disadvantages. Governor Herter and President Eisenhower have declared that they are in favor of lowering the age requirement. I think that we should take the advice of these wise men and give our young, but able, citizens a voice in the running of our government.

THE IMPORTANCE OF YOUR EDUCATION

James Denker, '54

Although most students have the proper attitude toward school, all too many look upon education as a distasteful medicine, taken only to fulfill the requirements of the law. They feel that an education is unnecssary and that they arc smart enough to get along without all this schooling. (A comedian once commented that such individuals are at the age when they are too dumb to know that the rest of the world couldn't be that stupid!) Later on, those who dislike school will be very thankful for whatever education they have.

We should all bear in mind that, in this highly-competitive society of ours, true success is attained only by those who take full advantage of all their opportunities. Right now, our biggest opportunity is a free education. How much we get out of it depends entirely upon the amount of effort put into it.

How about you? Are you putting forth your best efforts? Now is the time to take stock of yourself, before it is too late. If you are planning to attend college, the better your high school preparation, the easier you will find college work. Then again, if you aren't going to college, the knowledge gained in high school will be invaluable in your everyday life. Although, in these troubled times, there is a tendency to think only of today, think of the future . . . your future.

A GREATER SCHOOL LOYALTY FOR OUR LARGER SCHOOL

Charles Rodgers, '56

Just exactly what is School Loyalty? To answer that question would take more than a few words or sentences. One way to explain school loyalty is to compare it to the building of a house.

All good houses have a solid foundation. Therefore, before we build our "house" of School Loyalty, we as individuals, must have a firm foundation, based on reliability, truthfulness, sportsmanship, and all-round good citizenship. These qualities should already be an integral part of our character; and if not, they should be made so, because these ideals are essential if we are to work and live happily with our fellow men.

Having secured a firm foundation based on good character, we are ready to begin building our house of School Loyalty. What are the materials for our house? First and foremost is you. The only person who can build this house of School Loyalty is you.

You may ask, "How do I go about it?" Primarily, we can help our school in whatever way we can. Too many people are under the impression that, to be loyal to our school, we must go out for sports, or if we can't do that, we must at least go to the games and cheer. Certainly, athletics is an integral part of our school. However, it is by no means the only way we can show school loyalty. Especially in the last few weeks when we are adjusting to the new school and trying out the monitor system, we shall have to work harder than ever for our school if we are to receive the full benefits of it. Through the windows of our performance in the classroom, others will be able to see the care with which we have built our house of School Loyalty.

Now we are ready to move into our house, keeping in mind that it cannot stand long without constant repairs and additions. When we have lived in our house for a while, we will realize that its benefits are two-fold. First, the lessons learned in building it will help us greatly in adjusting to adult life. Second, if we have all built up our School Loyalty faithfully, there can be but one result for our school — a bigger and better Scituate High.

SCHOOL SPIRIT

Joan Turner, '56

- S is for School Spirit in which we are not lacking;
 - Each and everything that's done needs everybody's backing.
- C is for the credits from our French and Chemistry;
 - But how many of us could graduate with our credits from loyalty?
- I is for the interest in our schoolwork and our teams:
 - It's up to us to get ahead not sit around and dream.
- T is for the time well spent on practicing each
 - To give our school a good name on the field or on the court.
- U is for the understanding among the students themselves:
 - That will keep those traffic tickets lying idly on the shelves.
- A is for the addition that we'll all have to impress:
 - Loyalty and School Spirit will be our secret to success.
- T is for the teamwork that it takes to get things done:
 - An S. A. dance, producing plays, or games that must be won.
- E of course, is for everyone; we all have a job to do.
 - Let's paint that new addition with the spirit of white and blue!

BLUE AND WHITE WEEK

The fifth annual Blue and White Week opened on Monday, March 8. As local elections were being held at this time in our auditorium, we did not have the usual opening assembly. But Joyce Petrie, '55 Joanne Fisher, '57 our public address system made it possible for Ruth Mitchell, Gladys Clapp, and Charles Goddard, representatives from the Student Council, to explain the week's activities to all students. The theme of the week was "Greater Loyalty for Our Larger School."

At the closing assemblies on March 12, Charles Goddard awarded the prizes. June Rhodes won first prize and Charles Rodgers, second, in the essay contest: Ernest Andrews won first and Maureen Stark won second prize for posters expressing the theme of the week. Donald Cohen awarded a prize to the winner of the photography contest, Robert Green. Then awards were made to Diane Prouty and Richard Green, who were chosen by the Key Club as the Good Sportsmanship winners.

Awards were made to the junior high in the afternoon assembly. In the essay contest, Robert Hayes won first prize and Deborah Tilden, second prize. Linda Bailey won first prize for her poster; and Patricia Dunphy, second prize.

The following Friday night the S.A. Dance was held in the auditorium. Charlie Valine and his orchestra played, and Ronald Kirwood, Richard Prouty, Rosalie Evans, and Phyllis Cahoon provided entertainment.

RADIO BROADCAST

On November 19, Scituate High was represented at Station WBET in Brockton by several members of the student body under the direction of Mr. Ralph Merrill and Miss Gertrude Reynolds.

A play called "Adventures of Johnny Galoot," written and directed by Mr. Merrill, presented a picture of a day at Scituate High. Phyllis Cahoon played the French girl: Richard Mitchell, Johnny Galoot; Eva Gallop, a French student: Mr. Merrill, a French teacher. Ruth Mitchell was the announcer.

Maureen Stark, Gail Purslow, Gladys Clapp, Lilla Fleming, and Marcia Newcomb gave our school cheers for the occasion: while Ronald Kirwood, Connie Bailey. and Anne Hare represented the band.

A quartet, consisting of Lee Carpenter, Richard Prouty, Peter Sharp, and Harry Driscoll, sang. The Student Council was represented by Chuck Goddard, Winifred Dennis. Leonard Stone, and Shirley Bevan.

ORATORICAL CONTEST

Tryouts for the annual Oratorical Contest were held on February 18 under the supervision of Mr. Ralph Merrill.

Richard Prouty. Fred Gleason, and Patricia Snyder competed in the preliminaries at our school. From these contestants Fred Gleason was chosen to represent Scituate High.

The district contest was held at Bridgewater State Teachers College, with many schools represented. Fred won fourth place in this inter-school contest, which is sponsored annually by the American Legion.

GOOD CITIZENSHIP PILGRIM

Ruth Mitchell was elected to receive the 1954 Good Citizenship Award, which is given annually by the Daughters of the American Revolution.

In accordance with the rules specified by the D. A. R., the faculty elect the Good Citizenship Pilgrim from three girls previously nominated by the members of the Senior Class. Selection is made on the basis of dependability, leadership, service and loyalty.

SENIOR YEAR HISTORY

- The boys who were in Key Club sure had determination.
- And credit goes to those who worked on "Chimes" and "Scituation."
- Jimmy won the Bausch-Lomb Award. His science was well-learned.
- A Good Sports Award was given, too; that Diane and Richic earned.
- Donnie traveled to the State House. Ruthie won the D. A. R.
- Fred, for once, forgot his drums and was the oratory star.
- The "Senior Snow Ball" what a night! I'm sure you'll all agree.
- And long will live the mystery of where we got that Christmas tree.
- Our acting talent really showed the night of the Senior Play.
- "Brother Goose" made quite a hit in no ordinary way.
- This has been our Senior year: our talents we've endowed.
- It was the most to say the least, and of it we are proud.
- We'll remember all the parties, the dances. and the fun,
- Friday night movies, and the football games we won.
- To Miss Hawkes and Mr. Johnson, our advisers
- We give the deepest gratitude for helping us pull through.
- The past has flown, the future waits, and graduation nears,
- But the mem'ry of our high school days will last throughout the years.
- "This is the finish of my tale; so now may I come in?"
- "Why certainly," the Keeper said, "in you I see no sin."
- On the old beloved Ford, a longing glance was east
- And with a solemn dignity, through the Pearly Gates he passed.
- The Keeper said, "Come here, my boy, and join your old crew.
- They've been waiting patiently here all day for you."
- Our classmate turned and there he saw his former friends appear.
 "Tell me, please." he then replied, "just how did
- they get here?"
 The Keeper slowly answered back and started with, "Ahem!
- The writing of this made you die, the reading finished them!"

Four seniors from the council, Phyllis Cahoon. Charles Goddard. Richard Prouty. and Thomas Whittaker, attended the Fall State Convention at Plymouth High School on October 6. On April 7, four junior delegates, nine representatives and the two advisers attended the Spring Convention of the Southeastern Board of Associated Bodies of Student Councils at Lawrence High School, Falmouth, Massachusetts.

The Student Council, with the assistance of the student body, voted to institute a student monitor system at the opening of the new addition to the school. This system will be completely run by the students themselves. The council also voted to prepare handbooks explaining our school.

The record hops sponsored by the Parent-Teacher Association with the assistance of the Student Council were a success this year. Many well-known disc-jockeys, as well as our own Key Club, entertained at the record hops.

BAND

Beryl Sylvester, '56

The band this year was affected by the double sessions as the junior high musicians had to come to morning rehearsals if they wished to play with the high school group. However, the band had a successful season in spite of this inconvenience. They played at most of the home football games and rallies, and provided the music at our Tech Tourney basketball game at Boston Garden.

On October 4, 1953 the members went to Symphony Hall in Boston to hear the United States Marine Band Concert.

The S. H. S. band participated in the Southeastern Massachusetts Music Festival on May 8, 1953. They also played at the Annual Spring Concert with the Glee Clubs.

Eight members of the band played in the Southeastern Massachusetts Bandmasters' Association Concert in Whitman. These players were Connie Bailey, Beverly Burt, Fred Gleason, Beth Gunn, Roger Kirwood, Ronald Kirwood, Charles Rodgers. and Thomas Whittaker. Fred Gleason and Thomas Whittaker also played at the All-State Band Concert, which was held this year at Worcester, Mass.

The South Shore League was discontinued this year because of Cohasset's decision to drop Scituate from their schedule. However, Scituate had a fine season, losing only to Rockland and Weston.

The best game of the season was the big win over our new rival, Abington. Scituate was way behind in the first half, but came back in the second to win 20-15. Another high spot of the season was the revenge of Scituate on Hanover for their victory the year before, and what a revenge it was, 26-6.

A big hole will be left in the team by graduation of several of the members, but Coach Johnson and Coach Crapser have some good material in the rest of the squad, not mentioning the Junior High players who had a football program under Mr. Driscoll. Those players leaving are Captain Donny Roy, Co-Captain Russ Prouty, Tom Whittaker, Rich Prouty. Chuck Goddard. Tommy Smith, and David Roberts, Manager.

They wound up the season, with a 15 and 3 record, as co-champs of the South Shore League. In regular league play Scituate's only loss in fourteen games came at the hands of Marshfield on their home floor. 48-46.

Invited to the Brockton Tournament, Scituate beat Norwell 71-33 before bowing out in the semi-finals to East Bridgewater 57-51.

The wind-up of the season came when Scituate beat Yarmouth 49-48, thereby earning the right to play in the "Tech Tourney." held in Boston Garden.

Richard Green. Charles Goddard. Don Roy, and Thomas Whittaker will be lost to the team by graduation this June. but prospects for next year are bright. Eddie Dunham. Bill Colton. Bob Lopes. Larry Schiner. Dick Meagher. Ted

BASEBALL

Leonard Stone, '56

I'v baseball Scituate and Cohasset have dominated the South Shore League for the last few years. Again in 1953 Scituate won the championship. This, however, was only the beginning of a successful season.

Coach Stewart and his team went on to win in the South Eastern Massachusetts Conference, which put them into the finals for the Eastern Massachusetts Championship game. This was the second time in three years that Scituate played in Fenway Park. It was a good battle. but St. Mary's of Brookline, Scituate's opponent, won with a score of 10-5, the only loss of the season.

Players returning this spring are Donny Roy, Russ and Rich Prouty, Chuck Goddard, Richie Green, Peter Stewart, John Gardner, Mike Coyne, Bob Stewart, Jack Edwards, Billy Colton, Carlton Bennett, and Bobby Green. The above team will make Scituate's hopes bright for the 1954 season.

FIELD HOCKEY

Nancy Taggart, '54

The 1953 girls' field hockey team finished the season in second place, losing to Marshfield 2-1. This was one of the most exciting and memorable games played during the season even though it was a heartbreaker. In the first few seconds of the game, Scituate swept down the field and scored, but Marshfield came back and tied the score at the end of the half. In the second half, Marshfield rallied and scored again. Scituate also made another goal, but it didn't count because obstruction was called against Marshfield. Therefore Scituate lost the championship to Marshfield for the second year in a row.

In the seven games played, twenty-six goals were scored to the opponents' four. Yvonne Mongeau was high scorer with sixteen goals: next came Mary Sue Curran and Nancy Taggart with four each, and Joyce Perry with two.

The second team deserves a lot of credit for practising every afternoon and providing competition for the first team. They made a fine showing in the five games they played, winning one, tying one, and losing three. Joan Grassie was the scorer of J. V. with one goal.

The members of the junior varsity were Sandra Adler, Joan Grassie, Carolyn Stone, Maureen Murphy, Sheila McEleney, Katherine Rice, Jane Graham, Cornelia Bowker, Joan Barry, Eva Gallup, and Cynthia Carlsen.

Credit for the team's successful season is due to Mrs. Bauer for her very capable coaching and to Betty Foster, manager, and Phyllis Clark and Dale Conant, assistant managers, for their fine handling of the team.

BASKETBALL

Mary Ryan, '55

THE whistle was blown, a basket was made, and the 1954 girls' basketball team began its season. Although the team didn't win the championship, they should be proud of their fine record, which was 8 wins and 6 losses.

Scituate girls totaled 496 points to the opponents' 559. Mary Sue Curran led the team in the scoring. Nancy Taggart and Yvonne Mongcau were next high scorers.

The high-light of the year was the last game at Hanover, — a game the graduating seniors will never forget. All through the play the score wavered from one side to another, but Hanover ended with a one-point victory.

The second team deserves a great deal of recognition also. They won 2 games, tied 1, and lost 2. The junior varsity this year had many good players and next year will contribute materially to the varsity team.

This June at graduation we are losing three varsity players: Nancy Taggart, Yvonne Mongeau and Ruth Mitchell. Diane Prouty, Betty Foster and Jane Graham, who contributed greatly to the junior varsity, are also graduating.

Much of the credit for a successful season is given to Mrs. Bauer, our coach, and also to Judy Lieber, manager, and Wilhelmine Dennis, assistant manager.

In March the following girls received varsity letters: Nancy Taggart (capt.), Ruth Mitchell, Yvonne Mongeau. Mary Sue Curran, Mary Ryan, Diane Prouty, Betty Foster, Jane Graham, Carolyn Bamber, Carolyn Grassie, and Jane Radcliffc.

CHEERLEADERS

Maureen Stark, '54

TRY-OUTS were held September 18 to choose the cheerleaders for the 1953-1954 season. Four Seniors were chosen: Maureen Stark, captain, and Phyllis Cahoon, Gladys Clapp, and Gail Purslow. The Juniors chosen were Marcia Newcomb and Lilla Fleming.

Practice started right away. The returning veterans, Maureen, Phyl, and Glady, set to work to teach the new girls the cheers. More emphasis was put on the final jump of each cheer, and this became the trademark of the Scituate cheerleaders. S.H.S. girls were the first in any school around to do a cheer ending in a pyramid. They won third place in the cheerleading competition at Abington on November 28, and they were voted the best cheerleaders on the South Shore by the South Shore Mirror.

They supported four great teams — hockey, football, and both girls' and boys' basketball. At the Annual Athletic Banquet, the Seniors received jackets for their services. However, the highlights of the year was cheering at Boston Garden for our championship basketball team.

It was a truly great year, and its memorics will last for a long time to come!
